Philip joined Morse Group in 1976, just after graduating from UNSW where he was awarded a Bachelor of Commerce having majored in Accounting Finance and Systems. Philip was admitted as a Certified Practising Accountant by CPA Australia in 1984, as an Associate of The Institute of Chartered Accountants in 1987 and as a Fellow of The Tax Institute of Australia in 1988. Philip became a Partner of Morse Group in 1986, and ceased being a Partner on 30th June 2012. However Philip has remained at Morse Group as a client manager for a portfolio of clients since his retirement as a Partner.

Philip personally assists with a wide cross section of taxation clients. He helps many small business clients with their financial reports and management advice on a regular basis. He also advises clients on involved and complex business structures, enjoying the challenge of assisting in the management of their financial affairs.

“Philip has been a very consistent, reliable advisor throughout his lengthy tenure of service at Morse Group and is an excellent team member,” said Justin Enright, Managing Partner of Morse Group. “He has over 40 years’ experience in public practice accounting now and is in particular very knowledgeable on tax structures for small business and primary production matters.”

Webb, a Bathurst native, has been active over time in the community, in particular as a long standing player and also Treasurer of the Bathurst Bulldogs Rugby Club as well as previous Treasurer for the Bathurst Chamber of Commerce.

“In an era where it is espoused that it is typical for people to have multiple careers and multiple employers in those careers Philip’s service to Morse Group and our clients represents an outstanding achievement and is testament to Philip’s endearing qualities of excellence, loyalty and reliability. We at Morse Group are extremely proud of Philip’s longstanding contribution and we look forward to more of the same. We congratulate Philip on this extraordinary milestone of achieving 40 Years service at Morse Group” said Justin Enright, Managing Partner of Morse Group.
